No. F. 8-22/2011 (CPP/PU)

December, 2011

The Principal Secretary,
Govt. of Madhya Pradesh
Deptt. of Higher & Technical Education
3rd Floor, Vallabh Bhawan, Room No.325
Mantralaya, Bhopal - 462 004
Madhya Pradesh.

Subj: - Establishment of People's University, Bhopal (M.P.) as a Private University.

C-

I am directed to inform you that People's University, Bhopal (Madhya Pradesh) has been established under an Act called the Madhya Pradesh Ni Vishwavidyalaya (Shiksha Avani Sanchalan) Anadhiniyam - 2007 as Madhya Pradesh Act (No. 18 of 2011) (04.05.2011) and not by separate Act as provided in sub para 3.1 & 3.2 of UGC (Establishment of and Maintenance of Standards in Private Universities) Regulations, 2003.

So far as the UGC (Establishment of and Maintenance of Standards in Private Universities) Regulations, 2003 is concerned, regulations 3.1 and 3.2 thereof provides as under:-

3.1 Each private university shall be established by a separate State Act and shall conform to the relevant provisions of the UGC Act, 1956, as amended from time to time.

3.2 A private university shall be a unitary university having adequate facilities for teaching, research, examination and extension services.

At this stage it is relevant to note that so far as Section 2(f) of the UGC Act, 1956 is concerned, the same defines the university in the following manner:-

2(f) University means a university established or incorporated by or under a central Act, a provincial Act or a State Act.

It is necessary to point out that the UGC (Establishment of and Maintenance of Standards in Private Universities) Regulations, 2003 as well as section 2(f) of the UGC Act came up for consideration before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Professor Yashpal and Anr Versus State of Chhattisgarh & Ors (2005 (6) SCC 420). The Hon'ble Supreme Court after examining the various provisions of aforesaid UGC Regulation particularly in paragraph 54, 55 and 56 of the judgement concluded in para 57 to the following effect:-

57 In view of Regulation 3.1, a private university can only be established either by a separate Act or by one compendious Act where the legislature specifically provides for establishment of the said university.

Further while interpreting Section 2(f) of the UGC Act vis-avis private university as a separate class, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held in para 69 of the judgement that we are of the opinion that having regard to the Constitutional scheme and in order to ensure that enactment made by parliament, namely, the University Grants Commission Act is able to achieve the objective for which it has been made and UGC is able to perform its duties and responsibilities, and further that the State enactment does not come in conflict with the central legislation and create any hindrance or obstacle in the working of the latter, it is necessary to read the expression established or incorporated as established and incorporated in so far as the private universities are concerned.

It is further relevant to note that issue of the mode of establishment of University also came up for consideration in the case of Prem Chand Jain and Anr Versus R.K. Chhabra (1984 (2) SCR 855). The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the said case while considering the effect of Section 2(f) and Section 22 observed as under:-

"The word established or incorporated referred to Acts under which Universities are established or incorporated several Universities in this country have been either established or incorporated under special statutes such as the Delhi University Act, The Banaras Hindu University Act, the Allahabad University Act etc. In these cases there is a special Act either of the Central or the provincial or the State legislatures established and incorporating the particular university. There is also another pattern - where under one comprehensive Act several Universities are either established or incorporated - for instance the Madhya Pradesh Universities Act, 1973.

In the present case the Madhya Pradesh Private Universities Act, 2011 is a general statute which neither confirms to the provisions of Section 2(f) of the UGC Act read with Regulation 3.1 and 3.2 of the UGC (Establishment of and Maintenance of Standards of Private Universities) Regulations, 2009 nor the same confirms to the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Prof. Yashpal.

I am further directed to request to you send a separate Act in respect of People's University, Bhopal (Madhya Pradesh).

Yours faithfully,
