GENDER SENSITIZATION

Report

A guest lecture on “Gender Sensitization” was organized for students and faculties of SOP&R on 26/04/2019. The guest speaker was Lt Col Prof. Dr. (Mrs.) Karesh Prasad, Principal, People’s College of Nursing & Research Center. She explained the difference between equality and equity. Equality pertains to equal rights in equal circumstances whereas, equity is equal rights posing special conditions and she also explained about gender discrimination where women are always considered on a secondary place in every field of life and she insisted on to bring change in the mentality of the society and to give equal opportunity to become stronger and Powerful. Students express their gratitude in exposing them to such useful lecture which gives them a legal awareness.
